That institute also says graduates from an American university can expect, on average, to carry more than $26,000 in debt.

I do blood tests 1-2 weeks before each doctors visit to keep a look out for signs of Liver/Kidney disease...ect that could be brought on by the prescription drugs I do take.

You may very well see worms in your dog’s feces–but that doesn’t necessarily mean your dog’s sick.